

About the IHF Leadership Model

The IHF's core vision is a world of healthy communities served by well-managed hospitals and healthcare services, where individuals can reach their highest potential for health. The IHF Leadership Model is an extension of the IHF's vision and mission. It supports our members, and the global healthcare community, to strive for outstanding, future-focused leadership to advance their services.

How to cite the IHF Leadership Model

The contents of the IHF Leadership Model may be copied, distributed, or reused by any organization for non-commercial use only, on condition that the author and original source are clearly cited:

It is not necessary to give the full reference if the IHF Leadership Model is referenced multiple times. Include the full information in a list of references and then the citation can be abbreviated to "IHF Leadership Model" in the repeated references in the text.

For references to a specific competency, please cite the document numbering, e.g.:

Competency 1.A – Professional, ethical, and social responsibility (IHF Leadership Model 2023)

How to use the IHF Leadership Model logo

IHF Members may use the logo of the IHF Leadership Model when citing their use of the model in their own documents. It may be used on print and electronic materials. The logo remains the property of the IHF.

- The logo must remain in the same format. It may be printed in black and white or as coloured images in standard IHF colours.
- The logo may be resized, but no amendments will be permitted to its design or the relationship of the items within the design.
- The logo may not be used to advertise any products or services or in connection with any commercial purpose.
- The logo may not be used to suggest approval or sponsorship by the IHF of any hospital/organization, its activities, products, or services.

Requests for logo file formats can be directed to: ihf.secretariat@ihf-fih.org
